FLIPPIN' GOOD TIME AT THE GREAT CENTRAL THIS WEEKEND (20th / 21st February 2010)

Pancake festival on the line.

The Great Central Railway is celebrating pancake day with sweet and savoury treats on sale at its stations.

Pancakes will be tossed at Loughborough Central station in the waiting room and also at Ellis tea room at Rothley station with flavours including banana, strawberry jam, chocolate and crepe suzette.

Kate Tilley from the GCR said, "Our Pancake festival is a great event for families to join in with. They can take a train ride or drop into Loughborough or Rothley station."

Steam trains will be running all weekend featuring 1921 built N2 locomotive number 1744.
