THE DAVID CLARKE RAILWAY TRUST

Registered charity number 1104839

The Great Central is changing.

DCRT is the new official supporting charity for the railway helping to make exciting projects and plans reality.

But we can only keep giving if you do.

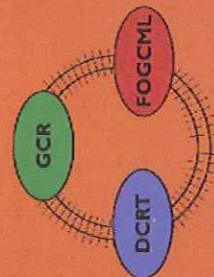

Together we've already achieved a lot and we can go on to do even more.

As a charity, we work closely with the Great Central Railway plc, the GCR's affiliated groups, and also the members of Friends of the Great Central Main Line many of whom are regular donors.

Everyone's support counts to protect heritage and inspire a new generation.

The DAVID CLARKE RAILWAY TRUST

Registered charity number 1104839

The DCRT is the official supporting charity for the Great Central Railway.

We make grants to the line and its supporting groups making all sorts of projects possible.

David Clarke was a generous benefactor to the GCR. He funded the majority of the double track project. Today, thanks to his vision and support we can enjoy the spectacle of steam trains regularly passing at speed. It is truly an educational legacy for future generations to be inspired by. Sadly David died in 2002. The trust was formed to continue his work and is responsible for raising and granting tens of thousands of pounds to preserve and develop railway heritage every year.

Just two projects we've helped:
The restoration of Oliver Cromwell and the conversion of the Ellis shed into a tea room

Four ways to help.

We can only keep making grants if you can keep giving. There are four ways you can be part of the DCRT success story:

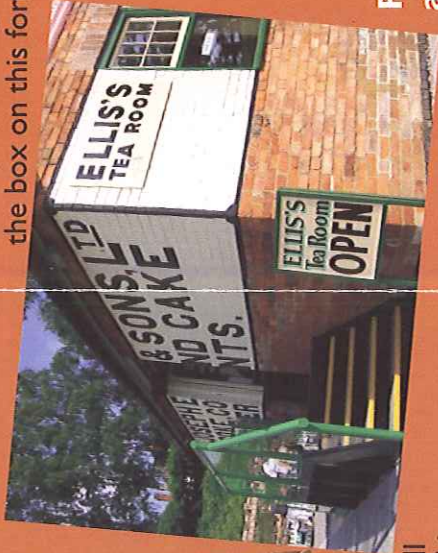

- 1 Fill in this form now to make a one off donation - anything you can give is welcome.
- 2 Fill in this form now to set up a standing order. Give a little every month automatically and it adds up over a year to a really special contribution.
- 3 You can give online using a credit or debit card at www.gcrailway.co.uk/dcrt
- 4 Please consider leaving a legacy to the DCRT in your will. Your passion for the cause can still be making a difference after your death.

We're proud to say our running costs are tiny. Over 99% of every pound you give goes directly into railway preservation. As volunteers run the charity, administration costs are negligible.

Finally a word about gift aid.

Did you know, if you are a UK taxpayer then the government will actually top up your donation? It costs you nothing and all you have to do is tick the box on this form. Currently we can claim 28% on any amount you give. For example, you donate £10, tick a box, we do the leg work and the government make your gift £12.80! Free money from the government for railway preservation - what's not to like?

Please give today and make a difference tomorrow.

THANKS FOR CHOOSING TO HELP THE DCRT...

Your support is really appreciated.

Fill in this side of the form to make a one off donation - or complete the boxes overleaf to set up a standing order.

When you've completed the form (please remember to tick the gift aid box if you are a UK tax payer), cut along the dotted line and send it to us with a cheque* made payable to "DCRT" if you are making a one off donation at:
